

Flags and Advertisements' Policy

Towcester Town Council does not permit anything to be attached to any property or on any land owned by the council, unless prior written consent has been given by the council.

This does not prevent residents from putting up flags or banners on their own property, subject to permissions required under highways or planning legislation, overseen by West Northants Council, or in the case of land adjacent to the A5 and A43, National Highways.